INFORMATIONAL MATTERS

(Non-action items)

- 12) Executive Officer's Verbal Report to the Commission

Executive Officer Dowdin Calvillo reported that the Commission's next meeting is scheduled for Friday, January 23, and tentatively scheduled for that meeting are one eligible list removal appeal hearing, the Child Development Specialist Series class study, and the proposed rule amendment to establish an alternate exam for persons living with disabilities.

The Commission will also meet on February 27, and it is likely that there will be several class studies ready for Commission consideration as well as a possible release from probation appeal hearing and the possible adoption of the proposed rule amendment to establish an alternate exam for persons living with disabilities.

She reported receiving two exam disqualification and one exam evaluation appeals since the last meeting. The two exam disqualification appeals are with DPS to determine if they can be administratively resolved, and the exam evaluation appeal was withdrawn.

Currently, there are eight release from probations, one failed medical evaluation, one disciplinary action, and one eligible list removal appeal pending before the Commission.

Executive Officer Dowdin Calvillo also reported that since the last meeting, she received the following class studies for preliminary review:

2025 Building Maintenance Worker class; 2025 Family Service Worker Series; and 2025 Process Server Series.

She said that she reviewed and commented on the following class studies since the last meeting: 2025 Emergency Management Series; 2025 Collection Services Series; 2025 Building Maintenance Worker class; and the 2025 Medical Case Management Nurse Series.

ADJOURNMENT

With no objection, the meeting was adjourned at 2:39pm.
